

National Memorial Arboretum
Role Description
Weekday Grounds Volunteer

What is the National Memorial Arboretum?

The National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire is the UK's year-round Centre for Remembrance; it is a place which helps people to reflect and to be inspired, a place where they can celebrate lives lived and commemorate lives lost in service. Located in the heart of the country, in the National Forest, with approximately 30,000 maturing trees and over 380 memorials across a 150-acre site, the Arboretum is a beautiful and lasting tribute to those who have served, suffered and sacrificed on behalf of the Nation.

What does a Grounds Volunteer do?

Grounds Volunteers undertake a wide variety of tasks to support the grounds maintenance and gardening team, producing high standards of grounds and garden maintenance. Supply basic information and direction around the site to visitors and act as an ambassador for the Arboretum.

Typical activities as a Grounds volunteer:

- Weeding/Edging/Leaf Collecting/maintaining the site.
- Assisting with woodland compartment maintenance – Crown lifting, removal of dead, dying, diseased, and damaged branches, ensuring site is safe for visitors and helping to improve air flow within woodland areas.
- Planting, Mulching, Pruning
- Cleaning Plaques, Benches, Shelters, Signs, and Memorials
- Litter picking and removing other debris.
- Invasive weed control

This may suit people who:
